SPECIAL RELEASE

CALL FOR APPLICATION FOR THE 2023/2024 INDIGENT STUDENTS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME (DELSU-ISSP)

Delta State University, Abraka, under the leadership of the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Andy Ogochukwu Egwunyenga, is delighted to invite eligible undergraduate students of Delta State University and of Delta State Origin to apply for the DELSU Indigent Students Scholarship Programme. This programme is part of Delta State University's Corporate Social Responsibility aimed at providing access to quality education to Deltans.

The Scholarship Award covers school fees and third party payments, such as INTERKEL only. It is open to 100 level to final year students of Delta State Origin who are intelligent but indigent. It will be for one year in the first instance and renewable every year as long as CGPA remains 3.0 and above.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA:

- (a) Candidates for DELSU-ISSP must be indigent and show evidence of Indigence (e.g. a history of withdrawal from studies for lack of resources to pay school fees in the past).
- (b) Must have a minimum CGPA of 3.0
- (c) Personal and Parental circumstances such as ill health, disabilities, unemployment, family challenges will be considered.
- (d) Candidates who are currently involved in Community Voluntary Service despite their indigence will have an added advantage.

- (e) Students who are currently enjoying scholarship from the State or other sources are not eligible to apply.
- (f) 100 level applicants must have chosen Delta State University, Abraka as first choice in JAMB and scored a minimum weighted average of 52 in Post UTME.

HOW TO APPLY:

The mode of application is online at the University website/portal – www.delsu.edu.ng/Scholarship.
